

Sandra YEUNG RACCO

for Mayor

Dear Friends & Supporters,

Following 18-plus years as a local councillor in the City of Vaughan, with many recognized accomplishments under her wing, Sandra Yeung Racco has decided to utilize her experience, along with her acumen, ability, and vision to become the next Mayor of Vaughan.

Sandra has demonstrated work ethic and tenacity, along with the principles of fairness, integrity and accountability over her years as the Ward 4 Councillor. She is ready to lead Vaughan to the next stage of becoming the most desirable and welcoming place to live, work and play.

She recognizes that there are many important projects to be done to build a world-class city and she is willing and ready to advocate and move them forward, with the cooperation of her colleagues, stakeholders and the community at large.

Effective and balance leadership is the key to Vaughan's success, and with her knowledge, experience and her long-term vision, Sandra will be perfect to lead the city through this next phase of growth and development.

We all know that to become the next Mayor of this great City, we need the support of the citizens and business community. I am writing you today to ask for your financial consideration towards a successful Mayoral campaign for Sandra. Please note that donations are limited to a maximum of $1,200 per person and can only be from individuals who live in Ontario. Donations from Corporations and Unions are not allowed.
